Sees Ocean As Wealth Source

Stocks in companies involved in research of oceanography and air and water pollution appear to be good investments.

This is what Judy Thompson, broker with A. G. Edwards & Company of Amarillo, told the Wheat Empire Investment Club here Wednesday night.

"Bernard Baruch said the secret of investment is to think 10 years in the future and act now," Mrs. Thompson told her listeners.

She stressed the future of oceanography. "In the future a large portion of our food will come from the sea," she said.

"Companies involved in offshore drilling exploration have appreciated faster than others," she went on. "The world's largest oil reserves lie deep under the ocean floor. There are also precious minerals, including diamonds and gold, being mined under water."

Mrs. Thompson said the US government has realized the importance of oceanography and is now spending large sums on marine exploration.

Mrs. Thompson has spoken on several occasions to Canyon and Happy investment clubs. She is the only woman stockbroker in the Panhandle and at 25 is one of the youngest brokers in the business.

Mrs. Thompson said she serves a number of clients in Canyon.

Punt, Pass Kick Is Set

Punt, Pass and Kick competition for local boys age 8-13 will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. October 12 at the Canyon High School football field.

The contest will be conducted by Canyon Jaycees and is sponsored by Jess Ford Company in Canyon. Registration will be conducted until October 4. Local boys planning to enter should register at Jess Ford Company in Canyon or contact Delbert Turk at Taylor and Son Food.

Divisions for each age will be judged with first, second and third place winners in each receiving a trophy. A total of 18 trophies are to be awarded in the local contest, and first place winners in each division will advance to district competition to be held in Canyon October 19.

Few Children In County Neglected

Randall County commissioners Monday voted to support the Amarillo-Potter County Child Welfare to the extent of $10 for each adoption investigation in the county and $500 a year.

Presently Potter County is supporting the organization with $57,000 annually and the city of Amarillo $15,000.

Ray Dunavant, supervisor, in a letter to the court pointed out that slightly over 40 percent of the total adoption studies done by the unit are filed in Randall County.

County Judge Carol Brown said less than one percent of the dependent neglected children under the unit's jurisdiction are in Randall County. Bulk of the unit's expenditures is for care of dependent neglected children.

District Probation Officer E. L. Boch submitted a budget request for $14,533.16 for the coming year. The probation department is included in the current budget for $11,221.02. The new budget proposal calls for a decrease in the Potter County portion supporting the probation department.

The current request calls for $49,503.56 from Potter County while Potter contributed $50,093.84 during the current year.

Boch told the court his request is based on the projected budget for his office and is prorated among Potter, Randall and Armstrong Counties, counties included in the 47th Judicial District, according to 1960 population figures.

Boch requested the three counties in the district to give permission for employment of an additional probation officer at a salary of $6,000.

"The case load now handled by the probation department has increased so rapidly that each probation officer is responsible for supervising almost 200 cases per man."

Boch said the legislature in 1965 stipulated that a probation officer handle not more than 75 probationers.

The probation department presently consists of the chief probation officer, three male and one female assistants. The staff also includes a secretary (See FEW, Page 9)

CHS Choir Seeks Funds

Canyon High School Choirs will have two fund raising projects in progress Saturday with the girls conducting a bake sale and the boys of the group involved in a car wash.

The bake sale will be held at Taylor and Son Food, Bel-lah's and Coopers from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m. with a variety of home baked items available.

The car wash will be held at the Magic Wand Car Wash with tickets selling at $1.50 each. Tickets, although not mandatory, can be obtained from calling OLS-3734 between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. daily.

The CHS choir will sell Manor fruitcakes in November and December as an additional fund raising activity. Funds from all projects will be used to finance a choir trip to Corpus Christi later in the year.

Faculty Dinner Slated By COC

A dinner honoring new faculty members in the Canyon Independent School District and at West Texas State University has been scheduled for Oct. 18 at 7:30 p.m. in the WTSU East Cafeteria.

The annual dinner, arranged by the Canyon Chamber of Commerce and sponsored by participating Canyon merchants, will help introduce new faculty members to local businessmen.

The buffet-style dinner will feature Dr. T. Paige Carruth, WTSU dean of student life, as master of ceremonies, a welcome by Joe Byrd, COC president, and responses from Dr. James P. Cornette, WTSU president, and Jerry Jacobs, CISD superintendent.

About 275 faculty members and their families and businessmen and their families are expected for the event.

A FOREIGN NEWSPAPER, plus several frightening memories, is the only souvenirs of an unexpected trip to Cuba for Mrs. Jack Donovan and her two children, Terri, 16, and Jack, 11. The Canyon trio were aboard an Eastern Airline plane that was hijacked and forced to land last Friday in Havana. A box of cigars purchased for Mrs. Donovan's husband, Jack, was held by customs officials. He is sports information director at West Texas State University. The Donovans were returned to the US Saturday.

Dr. Cavness Served

With McArthur

BY WAYNE BOARD

A knowledge of the Oriental mind helped Gen. Douglas McArthur effect a smooth takeover of territory from Japan following the close of World War II.

This observation was made by Dr. R. M. Cavness, professor of education and assistant to Dr. Emmitt Smith, project development and research at West Texas State University.

Dr. Cavness was in Manila during the transition period following World War II—a transition period that saw McArthur restore order and facilities as well as placate the Japanese military leaders.

Preparations for what had to be done following the close of the conflict had been in the making for more than five months, Dr. Cavness said, adding that the largest single question was what had to be done concerning the emperor.

There was talk of the emperor being shot or hanged before he managed an "honorable suicide."

"McArthur decided to tell the emperor to sit right there very still in his own chair while the changes were made," Dr. Cavness recalled.

The country was run by Mc-

Arthur, but it was done through the emperor who passed commands down the line from the US military brass.

"He knew what to do instantly," Dr. Cavness declared. "He was the only high ranking military brass anywhere in the services I ever heard of who knew the Oriental mind."

Dr. Cavness was on detached service with the Army from the Navy when the occupation forces were busy restoring public utility.

ABCs Important To Jail Inmate

BY TROY MARTIN

Santos Delgado is in Randall County jail but his jail sentence may turn out to be one of the best things that ever happened to him.

Santos is learning to read and write. For the first time in his life books are coming alive for him.

Santos is 22 years old. His parents spoke Spanish in the Delgado home so he entered a strange world when he went to school that first day in San Antonio.

"I couldn't even understand what was going on," he recalls now.

"I never learned to read or write," he went on. "The teachers just passed me because I was too big to keep in the same class."

Santos managed to get credit for sixth grade work without ever having learned to read or write. He became disgusted at the age of 13 and quit school to take a job in South Texas agriculture.

The pay was meager. In the meantime, Santos married. He and his wife now have two children—two girls, 1 year old and 3 years old.

Santos tired of farm work and decided to move to this area on the chance that he could better himself. In Amarillo he looked for work but it was always the same. He was barred from better jobs because he did not have an education.

He wanted to be a truck driver but this was outside the realm of possibility. He could not read or write and consequently could not take the written examination to qualify for a drivers license. Indeed, he could not even get a license to operate an automobile.

Then July 4, he admits, he did a little too much celebrating. He was picked up, charged and convicted of driving while intoxicated. He drew a year in county jail.

His wife went to work in a (See ABCs, Page 9)

WT Republicans Get Organized

The Young Republicans of West Texas State University met Monday to form an organization and Tuesday became federated with the State Republican headquarters.

John Mann, WTSU senior who is temporary chairman for the newly formed organization, said the group would hold its first formal session Monday at 7 p.m. in the Azure Room of the Student Union Building.

The group also plans to become a campus-recognized organization by submitting a copy of their constitution at a meeting of the WTSU Student Senate Monday.

The organization, under policies established by the WTSU Board of Regents, cannot support one particular candidate but will be allowed to support the local, state and federal candidates in the Republican Party.

Mann said the members were attempting to have Paul Eggers, Republican Party gubernatorial hopeful, on the campus Oct. 28 and has invited Richard Nixon's daughters, Julie and Pat, or David Eisenhower here.

Ted Ballard, WTSU freshman from Amarillo who is the club's coordinator for the high school and Amarillo College Young Republicans, is head of the national college for Nixon-Agnew in the Panhandle. Walter Shelly, assistant professor of government, is sponsor.

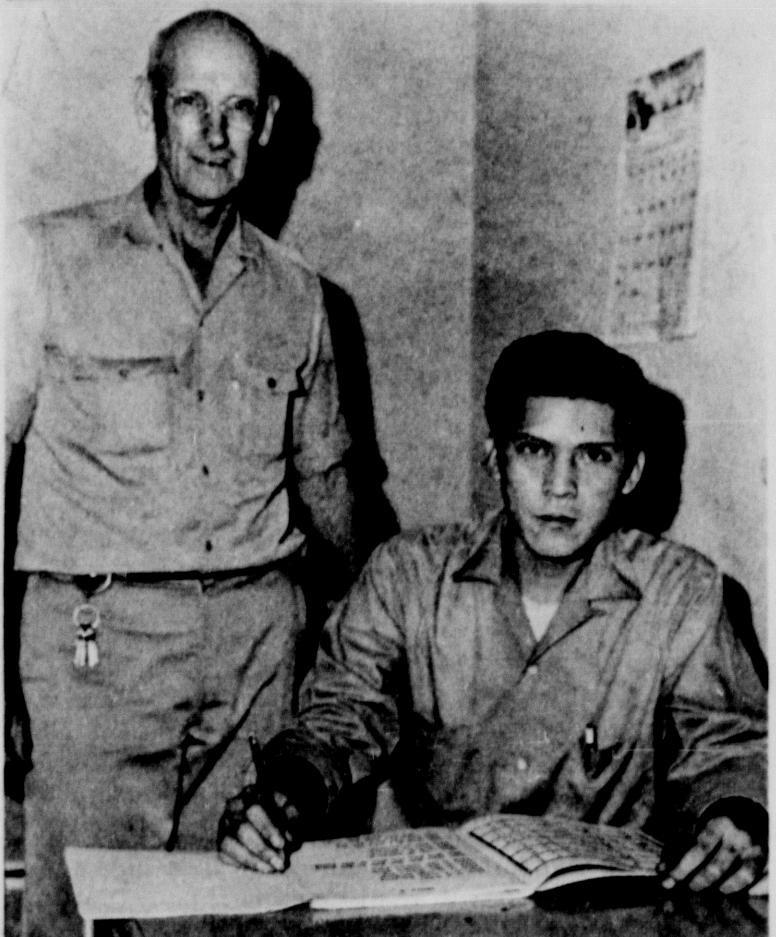

Band Parents Sell Calendar

Birthday Calendars are being sold by the Canyon Band Parents in a door-to-door canvass of the city, according to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brotherton, BP presidents.

Each person ordering the calendar will have their name printed on the calendar on the date of their birthday. The calendar will also show wedding anniversaries, meeting dates of various organizations, civic and social meetings and athletic events of both Canyon High School and West Texas State University.

Listings on the calendar will be $1 per person, $1.50 for married couples and $2 for families. Extra copies of the calendar may be purchased for 50 cents.

Local residents not contacted during the citywide canvass should contact a member of the Band Parents as soon as possible to be placed on the calendar.

Leroy Miller, standing, watches his pupil do "homework." The pupil is Santos Delgado who Miller is teaching to read and write. Miller is custodian at the court house and Delgado is an inmate of Randall County jail.

Life Men Find Life Is Tough

Life staffers here to do a piece on Eugene "Mercury" Morris ran into uncommon difficulty here Saturday.

They needed 700 pounds of equipment—strobe lights set up in the end zone—for the Wichita State game Saturday night. Presumably the lights were on tap in an effort to catch the Mercury man as he scooted across for a touchdown.

The equipment was taken to New Orleans by mistake. Life arranged for a private jet plane to bring it to Amarillo.

It arrived in a nick of time only to be shorted out by the torrential rain which fell during the ball game.

Buff Coach Joe Kerbel said Life had two photographers and a writer here most of last week. They left early this week. The photographers snapped more than 800 pictures of Morris, in the dressing room, classroom, dormitory and elsewhere on campus.

Some 125 photographs were taken in the Buff dressing room.

Lions Club Fun Day Set

A Canyon Lions Club Fun Day will be held Oct. 5 at the Wonderland Amusement park located in Thompson park in Amarillo.

In event of bad weather, the Fun Day will be held Oct. 6.

Tickets are being sold by members of the Canyon Lions Club.

NEW ZONING MAP for the City of Canyon, plus a set of zoning standards, were adopted here this week. City Manager Paul Davis indicates one of the 12 zones for Canyon prepared in the map by Marvin Springer of Dallas.

by Troy Martin FROM THE CANYON RIM

If Preston Smith is elected governor of Texas, it is just about a cinch that Wayne Thomas, a Hereford lawyer, will be named to the board of regents which governs West Texas State University.

Thomas is a past president of the ex-students association and a member of the Committee of 67. He is a briar-keen lawyer who is devoted to the welfare of West Texas State University.

If he is appointed, he can be expected to make board meetings interesting.

Dick Brown, candidate for US Congress from this district, in Amarillo this week speaking before the Junior Chamber of Commerce, blamed Rep. Bob Price for the troubles of downtown merchants.

He also blamed the congressman for the closing of Amarillo Air Force Base.

Possibly Brown hasn't heard about suburban shopping centers. They are largely responsible for the decline of Polk Street business in Amarillo.

Brown's talk made me wonder if he is aware that Lyndon Johnson, a member of Brown's party, was elected President in 1964 and that it was the Democratic chief executive who ordered Amarillo Air Force Base phased out.

Brown also blames Price for the predicament of Panhandle agriculture. Again it has been an administration of Brown's own party which has called the shots in agriculture for the past eight years.

Any government-caused ills in agriculture must be traced to the Johnson administration, not to Republican Congressman Bob Price.

I'd like to hear some concrete proposals from Candidate Dick Brown. To date his campaigning has been limited to slinging mud and ridicule of Congressman Price. I have not heard him make a definite proposal about anything.

One of his severest criticisms has been leveled against Price for voting against a water desalinization plant in California. Brown has never told us whether the proposed plant was really needed or for what the water from it would be used. Offhand it sounds like another boondoggle.

A tear please for poor H. M. Baggerly, beleaguered editor of The Tulia Herald.

H. M. has always prided himself in supporting the Democratic Party--no matter what. This year the party is so splintered that even H. M. can't tell which part of the party to support.

H. M. is cast in the role of Sancho Panza, the rotund squire of Don Quixote in Spanish literature with his darling, Senator Ralph Yarborough cast in the leading role.

Don Quixote of old--dressed in homemade armor and riding a converted plow horse--used to charge windmills thinking they were marauding giants.

Don Quixote Yarborough charged a political windmill at Chicago and got his political teeth knocked out in the process.

Yarborough then threw in with the hippies and yuppies in the streets and condemned the Chicago police for trying to keep order.

There is a difference in the original Don Quixote and the senior senator from Texas. Don Quixote was a balmy idealist. Ralph is just balmy.

Charlie Donnell, the movie man, is about to begin a very worthwhile community project. Charlie, a former mayor of Canyon, is going to spruce up the old Olympic Theater on the north side of the square in downtown Canyon and show some children's movies there on Saturday afternoons.

Heidi is one of the children's classics to be shown. He has a long list of movies certain to provide education and entertainment for Canyon children. I hope the parents will bring their children to the show. We will have an announcement before the program gets under way.

Canyon High School's football fortunes are on the mend.

Coach Dunny Goode's charges played creditable ball at Olton last Friday night. They held the AA top ranked Mustangs to a 22-9 score. Our defense was tough.

The junior varsity is enough to make any Eagle fan beam with anticipation of the 1969 and 1970 seasons. The Eagles are going to be a team to reckon with in the state those two years if nothing unforeseen occurs in the interim.

Someone parked in my scholarship parking place Saturday night. The parking place costs $100 a year and the money is used to support the Buffalo football team.

I was angry about it until I did some thinking. The intruder had parked his big, shiny 1968 Cadillac in a parking place with my name on it for all the world to see.

Editor: The Canyon News

Although my political opinion is adverse to yours, "no matter, never mind."

I do not admire those who claim omnipotency; a yippy, who flaunts the Lone Star Flag in a protest demonstration and those who for self-advancement attack a Jewish Supreme Court Judge; against anything LBJ advocates; he incidentally was not the first to say "Politics is the science of the possible."

Whoever wins in the fall election will become the target for all our ills, and will be unable to carry out campaign promises.

It's time we show mature judgement.

The nice young doctor who cured your cold yesterday may be sorry he wasn't in practice to cure that dozy you had last year...but if he wasn't, he couldn't.

It's the same with us...We just started last spring. We know you who came a year or so ago may still feel like newcomers. We'll be happy to answer your questions and help in any way we can, but we just can't charge our sponsors for a service you needed before it existed...So if we knock on your door and ask if you are new, please understand.

If you came since we started and weren't called on... Forgive us, we tried to find you. If you've just arrived or know a new family in Canyon, please call us.

Welcome Wagon

Our World

BY ANN BROWN

American freedom is being assailed on every side and in the middle. Probably the greatest threat to our way of life--and perhaps life itself--is the inconsistency and lack of unity rampant among American leadership.

Our sons, husbands, brothers, and fathers are dying by the hundreds and being maimed by the thousands every week in the vermin-ridden jungles of Vietnam to "liberate the Vietnamese, and contain Communism in East Asia." Yet 26 Americans go over to Wolfach Germany to "represent us" at a ten-day convention working to create a World Government--the perpetual Communist goal.

Our "representatives" decided, however, that 10 days was not quite long enough to draft a World Constitution, but they expect to have it perfected by 1970. They are even more optimistic than the Russian Communists who have set 1972 as the date they expect to rule the world.

While our men fight and die to defeat Communists in East Asia, we welcome hordes of them to the U. N. in New York, and to the Russian Consulate in Washington D. C. Now Russia wants to establish Consulates in major cities throughout our country to strengthen their already-powerful "Trojan Horse."

The inconsistent lawmakers, who wine and dine the Communists, confer and trade with them--and lend them money--while they are slaughtering our men on the battlefield, brazenly assure us that all they have to do to stop crime with firearms is to pass a strong gun-control law. With the same breath they tell us we may as well legalize marijuana because the laws we have against it are much too strong, still they cannot prevent anyone from getting all the "reefers" he wants. Why do our lawmakers think they can control guns, that any bright boy can make in his dad's garage, but they cannot control marijuana that has to be shipped in from Mexico?

How can the law control guns if it cannot control liquor or narcotics? Remember when the lawmakers assured us they could control liquor--if it were only made legal? Notice how that has worked out?

The General Board of the National Council of Churches meeting in Houston last week called for a halt in production of our defensive and offensive weapons. They insist we should rely on Christian ethics to defend us. The Council members have evidently been neglecting their Bible study. The Scripture says, "The horse is prepared against the day of battle, but safety is of the Lord" (Proverbs 21-31). How can we expect to claim the Lord's promise of safety--if we do not obey His command to prepare the "horse?"

Out in Oakland, California a jury convicted Black Panther Huey Newton of manslaughter in the wanton slaying of a white policeman, and the wounding of another. Then the University at Berkeley appointed ex-convict Eldridge Cleaver, the Black Panther's "Minister of Information," who has a third-grade education, to the faculty to teach a course (for 5 hours credit) on racism.

Cleaver who is a candidate for President on the Peace and Freedom ticket, advocates killing judges, police, corporation lawyers, and all white people who do not "act in a prescribed manner." (One assumes Cleaver will do the prescribing.)

Governor Ronald Reagan has demanded Cleaver be fired immediately. (Imagine a tax-supported institution appointing anyone to teach the "fine art" of murder and anarchy to our young people.) The Regents refused to fire Cleaver, but did suggest he be limited to one "lecture."

If Bonnie and Clyde had lived in this generation, they would probably have been employed to guard Fort Knox.

"A house divided against itself cannot stand." Nor can any nation long endure that forces peaceable, productive citizens to abide by the laws while rewarding militant, nihilist anarchists for violating them.

Chevrolet introduces 1969.

Caprice. Match this, you other 69's!

There is no joy in the land of our competitors today. But let us ask you this.

Should we have made Caprice shorter instead of the longest Chevrolet ever built? Or adorned it with flashy nicknacks to make it look less expensive?

Just because competition doesn't, should we not have offered you washers to clean your headlights, new variable-ratio power steering, liquid tire chain you can apply to your rear wheels at the touch of a button?

Should we have given you less power, instead of the largest standard V8 in its field?

Some people think so.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY JUDGE
RANDALL COUNTY

PERTINENT POINTS TO PONDER

Most county judges in the Panhandle are laymen, not lawyers.

A license to practice law does not guarantee the fitness of a man for the office of county judge, nor does the lack of such license necessarily disqualify him.

All honorable men are not lawyers, and all lawyers are not honorable men.

A comprehensive knowledge of law is available to anyone who will diligently apply himself to the task of studying it.

Furthermore, legal advice and counsel is provided for county judges by district and county attorneys.

SOME OBVIOUS OBSERVATIONS

It has been said, "Self praise is half scandal."

If man's elevated opinion of himself carried much weight we would have little need for credit bureaus or letters of reference.

He who seeks public office bids for the place of a servant; his first obligation is not unto himself, but his loyalty should ever be to the hand that feeds him. "It is required in stewards that a man be found faithful."

PERSONALLY SPEAKING

I boast not of a super abundance of knowledge, but frankly admit the lack of it. I am not even "sharp" enough to conceive of any legitimate reason why a political candidate would ask the people to RE-elect him to an office to which they had never duly elected him in the first place.

If you, the people of Randall County, believe I merit your confidence and vote, please be assured of my appreciation. I do not intend to "let you down."

Mexican Farmers Tour Area

A delegation of cooperative farmers from parts of Mexico were in Canyon Monday afternoon for a coffee break at the First National Bank.

The group is led by Enrique Camargo, N. Gerente de Ciudad Obregon, Sonora; Jose H. Ortega of Los Mochis, Sin. Mexico; and Ing. Alberto Fazueta Nieblas of Hermosillo, Mexico. Nieblas is secretary of agriculture for western Mexico.

The three leaders and delegation of farmers were accompanied on their visit to Canyon by Don Maddox of Midwest Distribution Company in Amarillo. While in Canyon, the group also toured the campus of West Texas State University and had earlier toured the experiment station at Bushland and the Randall County Feed Yards.

The group also planned to travel to Little Rock, Arkansas to study the seed process facility and production of soybeans before returning to Mexico.

MRS. DON BAIRD and daughter, Janie, pose in the family home at 510 15th Street, Canyon, where she has a special kitchen corner devoted to a collection of cookbooks from which Mrs. Baird shares recipes this week which are favorites of her family.

Shares Favorites

Mrs. Don Baird shares favorite recipes with our readers this week including Eggs A La Goldenrod, Quick Breakfast Doughnuts, and Easy Grape Jelly.

Mrs. Baird, the former Nadina Loucks, was raised in Ponca City, Oklahoma where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D.O. Loucks, continue to reside. She has a brother, Harry Loucks, in Cincinnati, Ohio and a sister, Mrs. Frances James, in Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

A graduate of Ponca School, Mrs. Baird studied at Oklahoma City University and Phillips University in Enid, Oklahoma.

In 1953, she married Don Baird, also a native of Ponca City, Oklahoma. He graduated from Ponca City High School and earned the bachelor's degree at Phillips University and the master's degree from the University of Illinois.

His mother, Mrs. Ray Baird, lives in Ponca City, Oklahoma while a sister, Mrs. Pat Ball, is in Houston and twin brothers, Gary and Larry, are in Little Rock, Arkansas and Vietnam, respectively.

The Baird family came to Canyon in 1965. He teaches trombone, baritone and tuba in the music department at West Texas State University and serves as assistant band director.

Members of the Central Church of Christ, Mrs. Baird teaches a 2-year-old Sunday School class and her husband is an assistant Sunday School instructor.

They have three children. Leslie, a band student, is in the seventh grade and Steven, a fifth grade student, is active in the Cub Scouts. Youngest of the family is Janie, age 3.

Mrs. Baird joined the Welcome Wagon service as a community hostess last April and visits with incoming residents in her position. She also travels to Hereford three afternoons each week to teach string music instruments in an after-school program.

Both Mrs. Baird and husband, Don, are members of the Amarillo Symphony. He plays trombone and she plays string bass.

Of hobbies, Mrs. Baird said that the whole family enjoys sailboating, camping and golfing and her at-home pleasures come from sewing for the daughters and knitting.

Recipes, which she shares from her collection of cookbooks, are as follows:

EGGS A LA GOLDENROD
4 hard boiled eggs
1/2 stick butter

News Brief

Dr. Fred Baldwin will be guest speaker at the fall organizational meeting of the American Association of University Professors Monday afternoon at 3:30 in the auditorium of the Old Administration Building at West Texas State University.

"Self Direction in the Poverty Program" will be Dr. Baldwin's topic. He is a native of Marshall and earned the Ph. D. from Princeton University. He was a Woodrow Wilson Scholar and was formerly on the faculty at Drexel Institute.

1/4 cup flour
1/2 tsp salt
1/4 tsp pepper
1 to 2 cups milk

Separate yolks from whites; chop up whites and break and fluff the yolks with a fork or press through a sieve. Set aside.

Make a thick white sauce in the following manner: Melt butter and stir in the flour. Add salt and pepper and cook over low heat until smooth and bubbly. Gradually add milk, stirring constantly and keeping near boiling stage.

Cook about 10 min., adding milk a little at a time until it is of right consistency.

If it lumps, beat with an egg beater or put in the blender for a few seconds. Add chopped egg whites and serve over toast. Garnish with crumbled egg yolks, salt and pepper. Serves 4 or 4.

QUICK BREAKFAST DOUGHNUTS

1 can refrigerated biscuits
1/2 cup sugar
2 tsp cinnamon
Cooking oil, 2 to 3 inches deep in electric skillet or deep-fry pan.

Use the center insert of a doughnut cutter to cut holes in the biscuits.

Heat oil to 370 - 380 and be careful it doesn't get any hotter or the doughnuts will not be cooked through. Only cook 3 or 4 at a time, turn after about 1 1/2 min.

Drain on paper towel until cool enough to handle, then roll in sugar and cinnamon mixture and serve.

EASY GRAPE JELLY

6 1/2 cup sugar
2 1/2 cup water
1 (6 oz.) can frozen grape juice, thawed

Heat sugar and water and bring to a boil. Boil rapidly 1 min. Remove from heat and stir in the pectin. Add grape juice and mix well.

Pour into jelly glasses that have screw-top or tight fitting lids. This jelly must be kept refrigerated or frozen. It will keep 3 weeks in the refrigerator or 6 mo. in the freezer.

Job Apps Are Down

Local offices of the Texas Employment Commission took fewer job applications during August than in the preceding month.

"The decline resulted to a large extent from fewer applications from youth and other summer jobseekers as the school season neared," said R. L. Coffman, TEC Administrator.

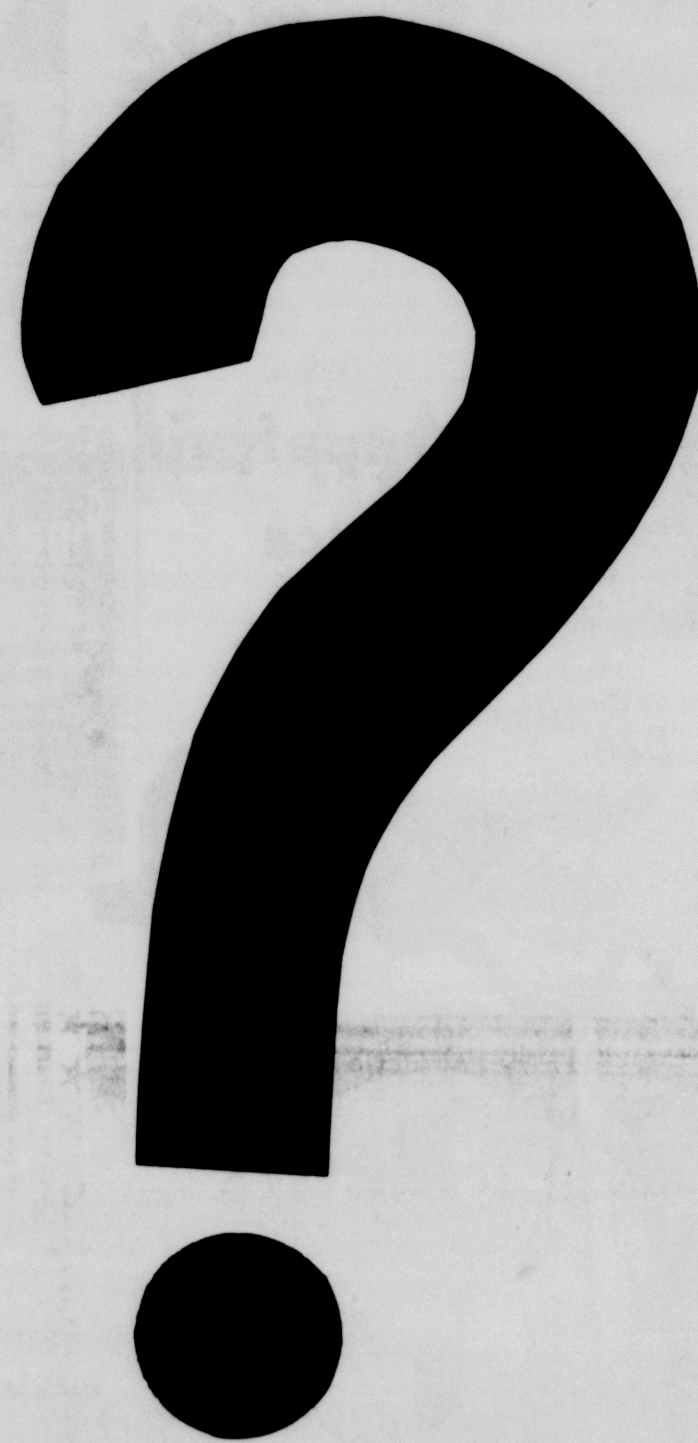

The offices took 49,562 job applications, down 13,000 from the July total.

Unemployment insurance claims were on the rise during August, as automobile workers in the Dallas-Fort Worth area laid off for model changeover, and filed for their insurance.

Farm placements were up 4,000 from the previous month, but placements in non-farm jobs were down from the July total by almost 2,000.

FHA Officers Installed Tuesday

Nicci Johnston was installed as president of the Canyon Junior High School Future Homemakers of America chapter in ceremonies Tuesday evening.

Miss Martha Sykes, past president of the CJHS chapter of FHA, served as installing officer. Officers to be installed formed a semi-circle behind a table which was centered with a large red candle symbolizing the flame of Home Economics. It was flanked by eight white candles symbolizing the eight purposes of homemaking which are (1) to promote a growing appreciation of the joy and satisfaction of homemaking, (2) to emphasize the importance of worthy home membership, (3) to encourage democracy in home and community life, (4) to work for good home and family life for all, (5) to promote international good will, (6) to foster the development of creative leadership in home and community life, (7) to provide wholesome individual and group recreation, (8) to further interest in home economics.

Red roses, the FHA flower, completed the decorations on the installation table.

Mrs. Nadene Lyles, FHA sponsor, welcomed 85 members and guests. The invocation was given by Vesta Wilson.

The installation rites were concluded with a refreshment period in the homemaking department where cookies and punch, prepared by Homemaking I classes, were served by Diana Boone, Sharon Freeman, Dolores Hawthorne and Vesta Wilson. The FHA colors of red and white were used on the table.

The visiting mothers were also entertained with a film strip on the latest fashion trends for the Junior High School age girl.

second vice president; Martha Sykes, installing officer; Nicci Johnston, president; Ginger Currie, first vice president; Gail Thompson, recording secretary; Vicki Burch, treasurer; Julie Coffman, publicity chairman; Yvonne Dooley, reporter; Jaycene Bellah, parliamentarian; and Sharon Freeman, sergeant of arms.

ities, drinking water, a policy force, all religious institutions as soon as it was safe militarily, libraries and even art galleries.

As one of hundreds of aides in Manila under the command of McArthur, Dr. Cavness was able to witness the general in action.

"He had sound ideas," the WTSU professor said of McArthur. "He had sound ideas for both the occupation and for a government."

When he was 38 years old, Dr. Cavness volunteered for military government training in the US Navy. He studied at Columbia University and later helped establish and serve at a Navy training school to enlarge the number of men being trained. The school had five classes with about 65 men per class section.

All the military trained government personnel were thrown together under the command of McArthur who was in charge of the South Pacific, Dr. Cavness explained.

The greatest piece of psychology used by McArthur, Dr. Cavness declared, was his famous "I shall return" speech. "That slogan," Dr. Cavness laughed, "was printed on candy wrappers, 'C' rations, 'K' rations, taped on shirt collars and on everything else that went in there."

Even the lowest echelon of the Japanese people were able to recognize and understand the McArthur slogan.

After the Japanese had successfully managed a take-over of the Philippines, the natives took to the rugged terrain of the mountains.

In the midst of the Japanese waters, the natives unloaded submarines bearing goods with the attached "I shall return" label.

"It was understood that they could keep the goods as long as they kept the slogan as well," Dr. Cavness explained. "When the natives had to go into the village for one thing or another they would drop the wrappers all around."

The Japanese, he laughingly related, were never to ascertain the source of all the wrappers bearing the slogan.

"He was a wiley fox," Dr. Cavness declared of McArthur. Defying the authority of President Franklin D. Roosevelt and orders from the newly-formed United Nations, McArthur failed to report one of his major invasions and, as a result, the mission was successful.

"Before, we would tell the White House and they would discuss the matter at the UN with the other nations of the world. The representatives would funnel this information to their military men, McArthur checked that," Dr. Cavness continued.

Dr. Cavness was born in Snyder where his father was high school principal. The family came to Donley County and farmed for about five years before the late Mr. Cavness returned to the teaching profession.

The Cavness clan then moved to San Marcos where Dr. Cavness worked and attended high school. "I learned to speak Spanish while working out in San Marcos so I decided to give it a try in college," Dr. Cavness said. And "give it a try" he did as Dr. Cavness received a bachelors degree in Spanish from the college in San Marcos and a masters and doctorate in the same language from the University of Texas.

Dr. Cavness taught in the Rio Grande Valley area before actually receiving his bachelors degree. For two years he was superintendent of a school at Weimar before returning to San Marcos.

At San Marcos, Dr. Cavness met Lyndon B. Johnson who was a student and errand boy for the president of the college.

Dr. Cavness moved to the San Marcos Baptist Academy where he stayed for 12 years. He joined the Navy in February of 1943.

Of his experiences with McArthur in Manila, Dr. Cavness said:

"I wouldn't trade my experiences for a million dollars, but I wouldn't do it over again for a million and a half."

Dates Are Scheduled For Hunting Seasons

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department has announced hunting seasons for 1968-1969, according to Stanley McDonough, local game warden.

Those seasons include doves, through Oct. 30; deer, Nov. 30 through Dec. 15, one deer, buck or antlerless, with a special permit required for antlerless deer; turkey, Nov. 30 through Dec. 15, one turkey of either sex; quail, Nov. 9 through Jan. 31, 12 per day with 36 in possession; squirrel, May 1 through July 1 and Oct. 1 through Dec. 1, five per day and five in possession; ducks, Dec. 14 through Jan. 12; and geese, Oct. 30 through Jan. 12.

McDonough said quail could be hunted in all counties from the second Saturday in November through Jan. 31 except in Briscoe, Childress, Cottle, Hall and Motley counties where the season is from Dec. 1 through

Dean House Is Promoted

Dean House has recently been promoted to executive vice president of West Texas State Bank of Canyon.

He has been employed with the bank since it was established last January and had previously been employed with the Hereford State Bank and as manager of the Plainview Production Credit's Littlefield office.

Active in the Rotary Club, House has held a number of offices in that organization. He is presently a director of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce, is a member of the Church of Christ and graduated from Tulia High School. He attended West Texas State University.

laundry in Amarillo and faithfully visits him every week. Leroy Miller, court house janitor, found out that Santos was illiterate. He set out to teach the young man to read and write.

"I just work with him at noon and when I get time," Miller declared. He thinks his pupil is making progress.

It won't be long until Santos gets out of jail. Miller said if Santos gets a job in the proximity of Canyon he will continue to tutor him.

"Education is the next best thing to knowing God loves you," said Miller, a devout member of Calvary Baptist Church.

Mrs. Delgado does not speak English and only Spanish is used in the Delgado home.

Miller has urged Santos to teach his wife to speak English in the home so the little daughters would grow up knowing their country's mother tongue. "If they don't do this, those little girls may grow up with the same handicap that Santos has," Miller declared.

In the meantime, Santos is looking forward to getting out of jail in the not too distant future. He says he will continue his quest for literacy.

"It is bad that Santos is in here," declared Miller, "but if he gets interested and gets an education, it could be providential."

Limit is two prairie chicken per day.

The licenses, good through Aug. 31, 1969, can be purchased at the Randall County Clerk's office, Western Auto and Quik Mart here.

The court deferred action on the matter for further study.

In other business the county purchased a two-ton truck for Precinct 1 from International Harvester of Amarillo for $3,029.71 and trade in. There were five bids.

Action was deferred on purchase of road graders for Precincts 1 and 4. Three bids were submitted.

The court authorized the advertising for bids for a chair for Justice of the Peace W. W. Hancock.

Action was delayed on the proposed hiring of Mrs. Mary Miller, interior designer with Architects Clayton Shiver and Russell Megert, to select furniture and furnishings for the new court house annex here.

Fee for such a service would be 10 percent of the purchase price of furnishings and furniture bought. Commissioner Clarence Beckman opposed the hiring of Mrs. Miller.

Commissioner B. R. Jones expressed himself just as strongly in favor of hiring her. "We want you to do the drapes and carpet but I'm not so sure about the furniture," said Commissioner Bill Butler.

"If I had known we wouldn't have a first class installation I wouldn't have gone for the new building in the first place," remarked Jones.

Commissioners learned Monday of the resignation of Mrs. Genelle Sparkman, secretary to County Judge Brown. Mrs. Sparkman will be employed as a secretary at West Texas State University.

Rabbit Hunting Lost Sport

BY VERN SANFORD

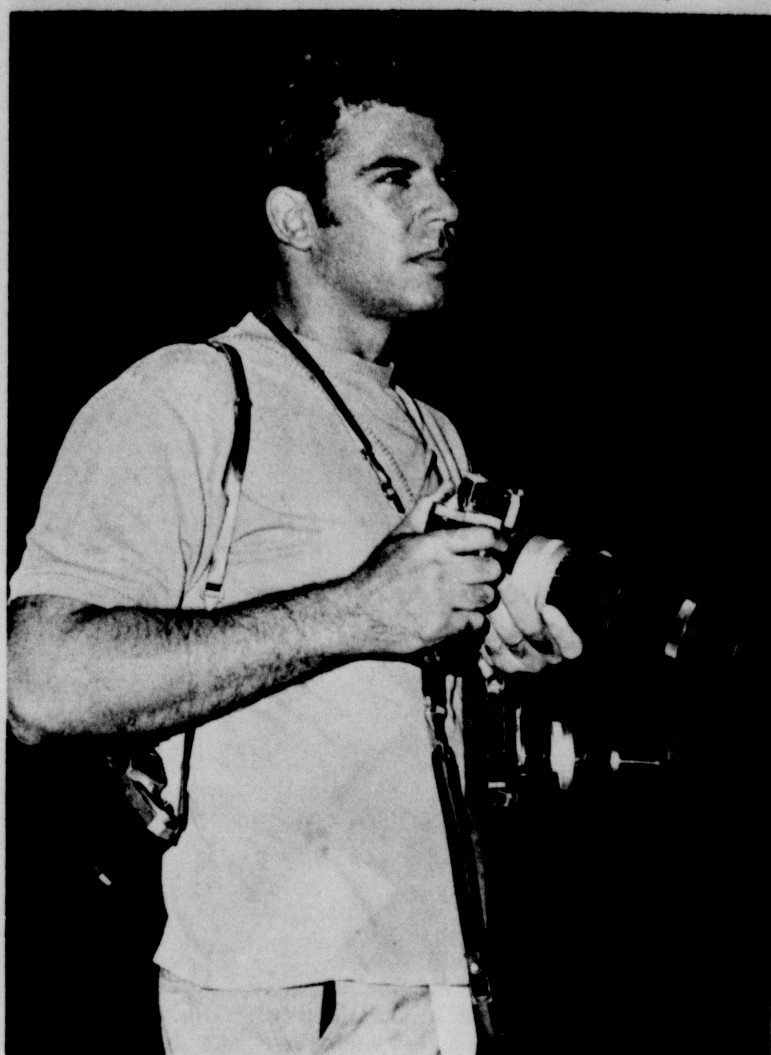

Rabbit hunting is almost a lost sport in Texas.

I mean honest-to-goodness rabbit hunting.

Sure, some hunter will be out after doves or quail and will plunk an occasional bunny. But how many Isaac Walton Leaguers do you know who go hunting strictly for rabbits? Very few, I betcha.

Why this is true, I don't

know. Rabbit hunting offers some of the finest sport to be had in the great outdoors.

Perhaps it is because the bunny isn't protected by game seasons in Texas. You can hunt cottontails and jackrabbits anytime. Somehow, by throwing the sport open to anyone, any time, it sort of takes something out of the pleasure.

But it shouldn't. Rabbit hunting actually is a bonus hunt. When other hunting seasons are closed and the hunter is home twiddling his thumbs, wondering what in blazes he can do, there is great sport to be had in scouting the woods for rabbits.

Believe it or not, rabbit hunting can be as simple or as complicated as you want it to be. This is one of the real appealing aspects of the sport. There are deluxe rabbit hunts and plain vanilla rabbit hunts, and just about everything in between, depending on your pleasure.

One of the most enjoyable means of seeking Mr. Rabbit is with a dog or dogs. Any canine that will chase rabbits can be used in the sport. But when you talk about rabbit hunting, you sort of think about Bassets and Beagles. These are the rabbit-hunting hounds.

Basically, both accomplish the same purpose. Idea behind rabbit hunting with dogs is to flush the bunny into the open where the hunter can get his sights on it. But dogs are not alike in their hunting methods. Beagles pursue rabbits mostly by sight; Bassets by scent. When a Beagle spooks a rabbit into the open, the dog takes out right on the heels of the bunny, its legs a blur of motion. Since the Beagle has short legs it can't stay up with a rabbit in a foot race. However, this really is an advantage rather than a disadvantage. If the dog makes the rabbit run too fast, it will take off instantly and soon be out of gun range.

Experienced hunters know that a rabbit often will circle and come back to the spot where it started. Thus the hunter stands still and waits, listening to the high chop-chop bark of the pursuing Beagle. Chances are the bunny will soon come hippity-hopping back in view again.

A Basset hound moves along with its nose almost dragging the ground. Seldom does it look up to see where it is going. When a rabbit is spooked by a Basset, the bunny sort of hops off leisurely in front of the dog, always keeping well out in front, but not hurrying. The hunter tagging along usually can get some fine shooting opportunities.

But dogs are not absolutely necessary to make a rabbit shoot a memorable event. If you don't believe this just take out your trusty shotgun or .22 rifle and walk through any wooded area known to be inhabited by rabbits. Keep your eyes alert. Be on the lookout for one to jump suddenly into view. . . . often from almost under your feet.

Best time to hunt is real early in the morning or late in the afternoon. During these periods the rabbits are up and about, feeding. Then they are more susceptible to a stalk. In mid-day they bed down in clumps of brush and you almost have to step on one to make it show itself.

Whether you prefer a shotgun or a .22 rifle is simply a matter of personal preference. A shotgun loaded with No. 6 shotshells is more deadly at short range and on running shots, but the .22 rifle is more sporting. Get your .22 out often during the year for a little rabbit shooting and you won't have any trouble connecting with a deer when the big game season rolls around.

Another facet of rabbit hunting, usually ignored, is that cottontails are very good to eat. A young, tender cottontail is especially delectable.

Skin one by making a cut crossways right on the backbone, insert your fingers under the skin on each side of the opening, and spread your arms apart. Half of the skin will peel down over the hindquarters, the other half over the head.

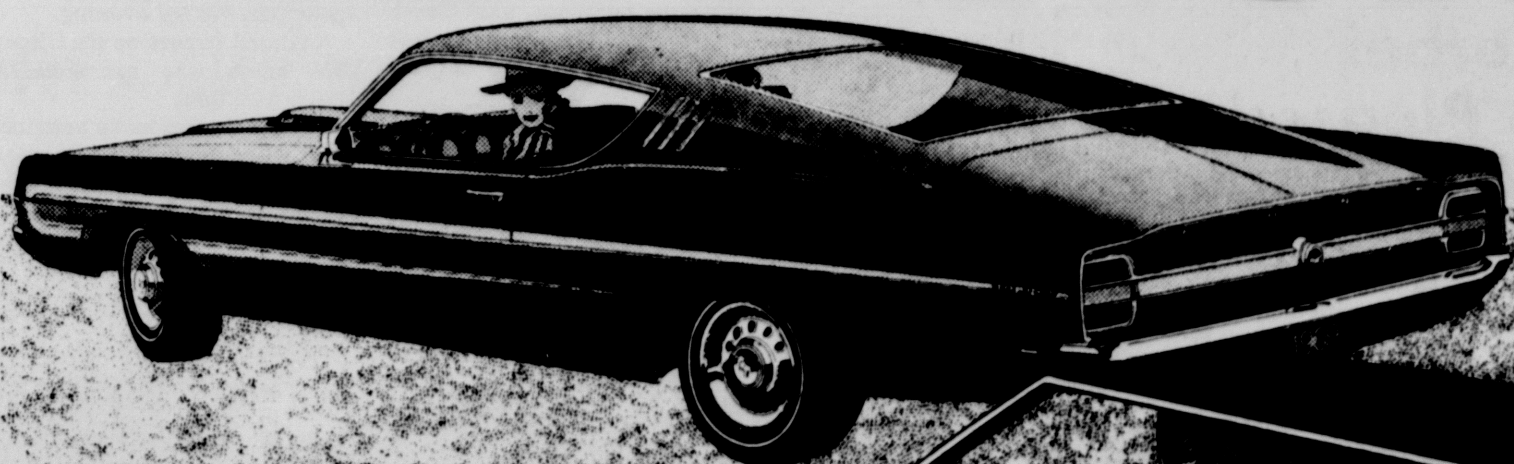

Cut the meat into chunks and fry it just as you would Southern fried chicken, in a deep skillet brimming with lard and laced with some bacon drippings. Or if you prefer, boil and later add dumplings.

One session at the dinner table when cottontail rabbit is the specialty of the house and you'll be a rabbit-hunting convert for life. Anyway, rabbit hunting itself is just plain fun.

Buff's Meet UP Team Saturday

Eugene "Mercury" Morris needs only 122 yards Saturday night to become the career rushing leader in West Texas State football history.

The 190-pound All-American halfback candidate, who has 2,353 yards rushing, gets the opportunity to better the 2,474-yard record of Bill Cross against the University of the Pacific Saturday night in Buffalo Stadium. Game time is 8 p.m.

Cross of Canadian, Texas, compiled his record yardage in four years of activity, finishing in 1950.

This will be Morris' second chance to set an all-time West Texas record against Pacific. Last year he broke the one-game rushing mark with 264 yards on 29 carries in a 34-9 triumph over the Tigers.

The meeting between the two schools marks the 500th game since West Texas State began playing football in 1910. The Buffaloes have won 253, lost 231 and tied 15.

Last week West Texas State defeated Wichita State 26-0 as two Buffs rushed for over 100 yards apiece. Duane Thomas netted 134 yards on 19 attempts and Morris gained 129 yards on 18 carries. Quarterback Roy Winters completed 12 of 21 passes for 182 yards and the Buffaloes rolled up 529 yards in total offense.

Pacific, under Coach Doug Scovil, received a big boost from a 21-20 opening game victory Saturday night over Miami University of Ohio. With a nucleus of 10 lettermen and 35 junior college transfers, the Tigers are determined to better last year's 4-5 won-loss mark. The entire starting offensive backfield was wiped out by graduation, but returnees Tony Plummer and Cal Rogers have help from junior college transfer Dave Brigham at offensive halfback. At fullback, transfers Chuck Camy and Al Namanny give depth to that position.

The Tigers are five-deep at the tailback spot, all junior college transfers. Southpaw quarterback Mickey Askey, from San Mateo Junior College, will be at the offensive helm. Tight end Bob Adams is the brightest spot on the offensive line that is big but needs experience.

Graduation hit hardest at the offensive line, where veteran Terry Vaughan and converted center Dave Shawver will be the tackles, while the guard and center positions will be wide open.

The Pacific defensive line is strong, bolstered by 6-foot-7, 265-pound tackle Bob "The Tree" Heinz. Kevin Shea, Mike Siegfried, and Steve Simondi, all JC transfers, appear to be the leading defensive linemen. The defensive secondary is in excellent shape with top returnee, Rudy Redmond, and junior college transfers to add depth.

Over-all, the Tigers appear ready for their "Big Year" as they call it. The West Texas defense, which limited Wichita to 77 yards rushing and 79 passing, was much improved over the previous week when the Buffaloes opened the season with a 45-7 victory over Lamar Tech.

Kerbel Is Pleased With Team

Coach Joe Kerbel Monday night told members of the Buffalo Touchdown Club here that he was pleased with the Buffs' showing in the 26-0 shut out of Wichita State Saturday night. Kerbel introduced two Buff players. They were Harold Stuart and John Notaro.

Kerbel had high praise for his quarterback, Roy Winters. He said Winters made a game grade of 91 percent. He said Raymond Brown did a fine job on the defense and named Harold Stuart a top defensive line-backer.

Top receiver was Dick Flynn and top lineman on offense was Joe Kerbel, Jr. Top defensive linemen were Willie Brown and Notaro.

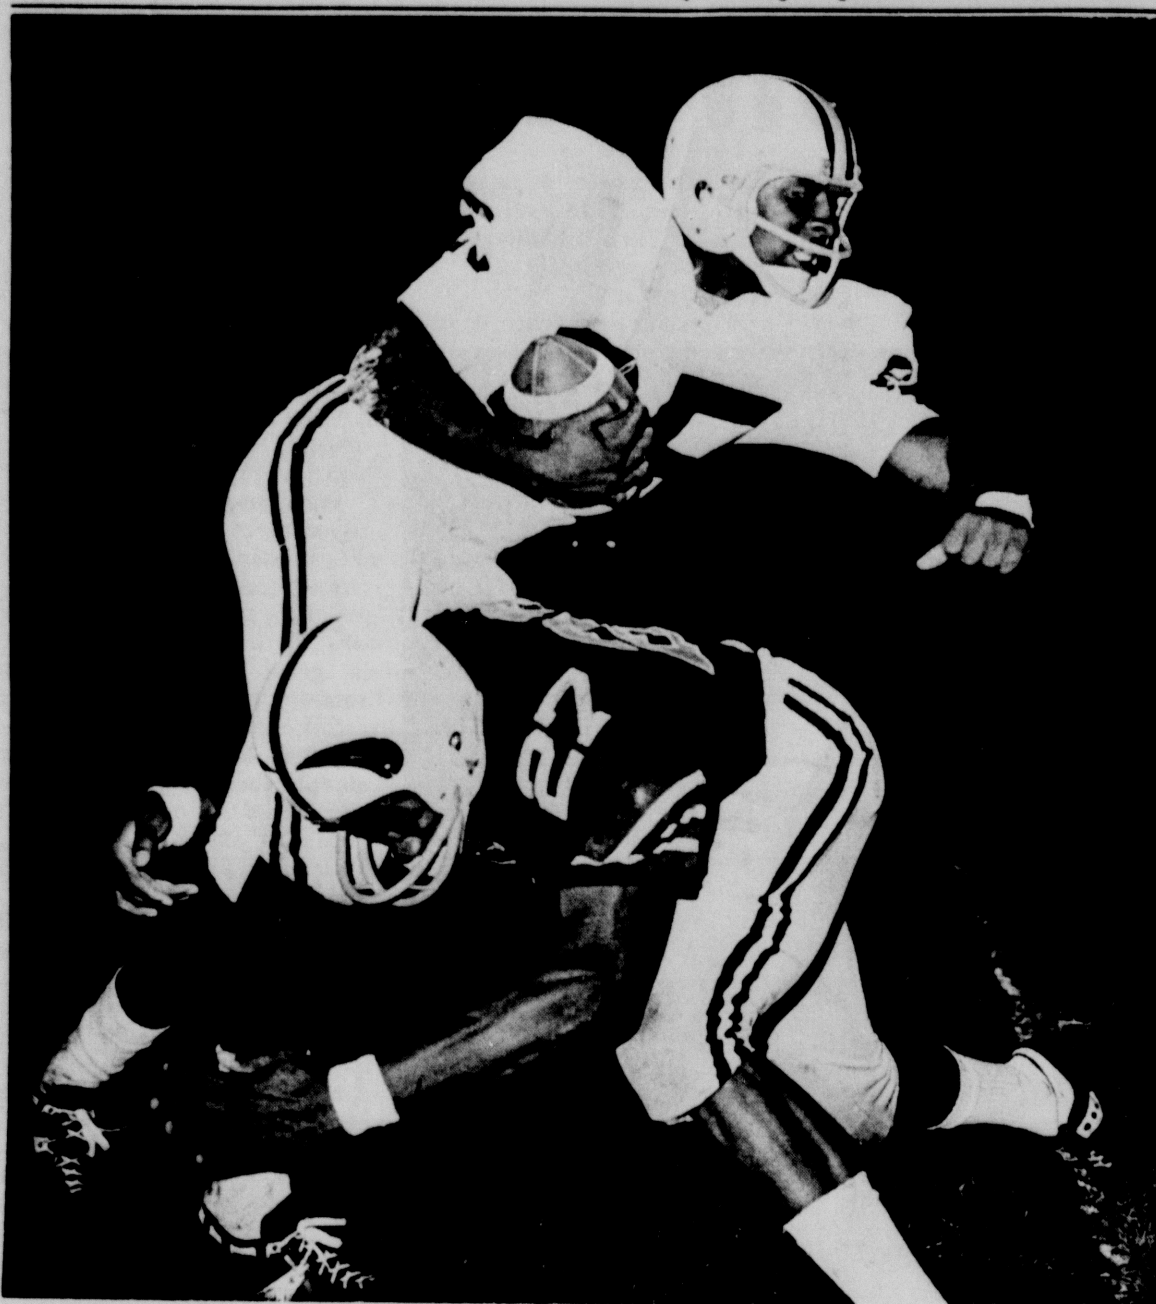

"I was real pleased with the team," Kerbel declared. A Spalding football autographed by members of the Buffalo team will be given as a door prize next Monday night at a regular meeting of the Touchdown Club to be held in the First National Room at First National Bank.

The game, slated at 8 p.m. in the new Amarillo Civic Center Auditorium, will pit the Dallas Chaparrals against the Los Angeles Stars and will open cage action in the new complex.

Tickets will be $1 for students of WTSU with identification cards and $2 and $3 for adults.

The group met in Amarillo Saturday to further plan the ticket sale drive that is expected to begin soon.

Bill Adams is president of the booster club.

Raymond Brown (27) is shown here putting the stopper on a Shocker ball carrier as the Buffaloes stopped the Shockers 26-0 Saturday night in Buffalo Bowl. Coach Joe Kerbel praised his defensive unit for a great performance.

Cross Country Added To Buffalo Program

Cross-country has been added to West Texas State's expanding athletic program, Athletic Director Frank Kimbrough said this week.

It apparently is the first time the university has fielded a cross-country team.

Track Coach Bob Kitchens said the Buffaloes will compete in the Wayland College Invitational Oct. 8 and the Texas Tech Invitational Oct. 19. He said several dual meets will be added, if possible.

Along with the announcement of the formation of a cross-country team, Kitchens said a track program will be inaugurated next spring. At that time an eight-lane, all-weather track located on the university campus is expected to be completed.

Kitchens said there are five cross-country runners presently working out in preparation for the first meet. Four of them are freshmen and one a transfer from Lubbock Christian College.

Don Cantrell, Dalhart junior who transferred from Lubbock Christian, is expected to lead the cross-country team. Cantrell has run the mile in 4:26 and the two-mile in 9:42, Kitchens said.

The other cross-country runners are Renard Franklin of Muleshoe, Larry Winegeart of Lubbock, Bryon Thoms of White Deer and Johnny Green of Silver City, N.M.

Winegeart is a promising pole vaulter, having done 13 feet 6 inches, Kitchens said. He also has broad jumped 22 feet. Thoms has done the half-mile in 1:57 in high school, the coach added.

Two other freshmen also are working out in preparation of

Penalties Cause Loss

Penalties and fumbles caused the 6-0 defeat of the Happy High School Cowboy football squad late last week against Bovina.

Two Cowboy touchdowns were called back and one was dropped in the end zone, said Coach Bill Harle. The Cowboys lost the ball six times due to fumbles.

One of the touchdowns was called back on the two yard line for illegal motion and the other was on a 65-yard punt return.

The Cowboys meet Vega at Vega Friday at 8 p.m.

CHS Eagles Open Home Season

The Canyon Eagles will open their 1968 home football stand Friday at 8 p.m. against a tough and face Spearman Lynx.

Eagle Coach Danny Goode rated the Lynx as "real fast and a real good team", adding the Spearmanfoes have defeated Canadian and Sunray 27-0 and 40-0, respectively, in their own season play.

The Eagles on the other hand have no injuries as they go into the arena with the Lynx squad--a squad described by Goode as "well coached and ready with a fast backfield".

Adjectives ranging from "tough" to "aggressive" and "a good boy" were used in the scouting reports to describe the Lynx aggregation.

As for the Eagle-Olton which Canyon dropped 22-9 last week, Coach Goode said Andy Hansen, Craig Parker and Mike Dudenhoefler all recovered one fumble; Sandy Hair was credited with a pass interception and Jim McBroom with eight tackle assists. Tommy Tucker was given a grade of 84 and Gary Moore with 83. Richard Podzemny had nine tackles and four assists and Doug Hooker one fumble. For the offense, Pat Hickman had the highest grade of 88 and David Erwin followed with 84.

Dewayne Potts was outstanding on defense. He held the opponents tight on the line and made several penetrations to throw them for losses.

Gregg Pitts played defensive end and was very effective in containing end sweeps.

The Calves will meet Gene Howe at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon on the Canyon High School field. Dennis Tomlin and Charlie McGraff are Cal coaches and Winston Hall is coordinator for the Canyon Kids Inc., program.

Hall said some more uniforms are available for youngsters who want to play football.

Western Greeting Cards Done By Local Artists

Four Canyon artists are producing Western art being used on Christmas cards distributed by an Amarillo firm.

They are Olive Vandruft, Don Ray, Carl Smith and Jim Ward.

Olive Vandruft is hailed by many critics as a modern Audubon and in rendering the wild turkey in its Texas hill country habitat, she might be considered superior. She is a hunter without a gun and as a small girl she spent much time trudging after her geologist father in his field trips.

The result has been an innate knowledge of geology and the many color facets of the Southwest. She has illustrated three books: Texas Grasses, Kerr County History, and Bob Crosby. She wrote and illustrated a zoo column, and helped form and illustrate a series of Intelligence tests for the University of Chicago Education department. She operated a commercial art business for nine years and currently, in addition to her painting, is Curator of Art at the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum. Almost 1,000 of her paintings hang in homes of the humble and the great, in public institutions and museums, and many of her murals grace fine public buildings. While her paintings encompass the field of western art her specialties are the birds and beast of the Western outdoors.

Many cowboy artists or artists of cowboy and western life arrive at the status in various and many ways other than the hard way, but not R. Don Ray. Ray was born on the McMurtry Ranch near Clarendon, Texas, where his father worked. He grew up on the ranch, worked there as kid cowboy, took his BA in art at nearby West Texas State University and was an art instructor at the University for two years.

Currently, he is head of the Graphic Arts Division of the Peco educational project in Amarillo. He has illustrated a couple of Western books, a cowboy calendar for four years and his work has been well received by patrons, collectors and has drawn much comment in big shows.

Carl J. Smith literally grew out of a Little Joe the Wrangler atmosphere on the Texas and New Mexico Plains into eminence as a Western artist. He earned art degrees and taught art for many years. Then the acceptance of his beautiful paintings with their vast understatement of everything but the loneliness and impossible distances of the Southwest gained for him the recognition that has put him before his canvas on a full time basis.

Smith was born on the Plains to parents born there before him. His grandfather was one of the first residents of Floyd County, Texas. Smith selected the settlement of the Southwest as his world of art dedication and all of his paintings are romantic bits and vistas of that highly colorful country where his family has lived since its modern day settlement.

To him art is a life of dedication and he shares with it only an interest in music. Often a tune on his piano sets the mood of a picture. Always the appeal of the music of the wind, the vaulted skies and the muted canonading of great distant thunderstorms finds its flavor repeated in the pastel colors on his canvas.

Jim Ward, 36, has been a cowboy, rodeo performer, and rodeo clown most of his life. A few years ago with a wife and three children to support, he realized that even being a ranch foreman, a job he then held, he must be making more money.

As a result, he enrolled in a correspondence school of art and began studying and practicing as hard as he worked as foreman of the famous Old Muleshoe Ranch. A contest was held for a symbol of the Texas town of Muleshoe.

He entered and won and thus was clinched his affair with art. He became an illustrator for the Quarter Horse Journal, art director of Irrigation Age magazine, and has done covers for numerous magazines including the Cattleman.

This summer he finished his studio and his kiln for sculpture out on the Southeast Forty near Canyon, Texas, and began devoting his full time to Western painting and sculpture.

FIVE CLUES TO DRUG ADDICTION

Many a parent has learned to their dismay that one of their children has become a drug addict. Usually by the time this information becomes known, it is because the child is in serious trouble as both a drug user and a criminal to procure his daily supply.

Look for these symptoms: 1) A good scholar becomes erratic for no apparent reason. 2) A shy child becomes talkative. 3) A truthful child starts telling lies and plays truant. 4) A healthy child loses weight and is unable to sleep. These characteristics indicate a possible, but not positive drug addiction.

Newsman At WTSU

Morgan Beatty, former National Broadcasting Company radio correspondent, was on the West Texas State University campus last week discussing journalism with students.

Beatty, who declared that no journalist could be completely objective, said the true picture of what happened in Chicago this year at the Democratic Party National Convention was not given the public.

He said the picture given was of 200 demonstrators and not the three million peaceful people who live in Chicago.

Beatty is now preparing a series of Associated Press-sponsored radio broadcasts he says will "explore the future of journalism", serving as NBC and Time Magazine correspondent in his home in Antigua, East Indies and conducting speaking engagements throughout the United States.

The newsman was brought to the WTSU campus by Bob Watson, general manager for KGNC-TV in Amarillo.

MISS LOU ELLA PATTERSON

Miss Patterson To Retire Here

Miss Lou Ella Patterson has returned to Canyon to build a retirement home.

Former home demonstration agent here, Miss Patterson first came to Canyon in March 1944 and stayed on here as home demonstration agent until December 1954. She has since served in demonstration work at Perryton for four years and at Pampa for eight years.

Born at Goldthwaite, Miss Patterson graduated from high school there and attended Southwest Texas State College in San Marcos where she received her degree.

Her first position was as assisting home demonstration agent at Waco in 1939 and then she went to Crockett as agent before coming to Canyon.

When she took her early retirement, Miss Patterson decided to build her home here since she "liked the Plains of Texas and had relatives living nearby in Hereford and Friona." Her sister, Mrs. Henry L. Ivy, lives at Friona and a brother, Ben Patterson resides in Hereford.

For the past two months, she has been busy getting her yard in shape and moving in. Miss Patterson stated that one of her favorite hobbies is yardwork and gardening and she has been attributed for having brought the first mimosa trees to Canyon.

"When I was agent here," said Miss Patterson, "I brought back with me from South Texas a group of mimosa seeds because the trees are fast growing. There weren't any here at that time and I put the seeds in small paper cups and pampered them in my office until I got them to sprout and become seedlings and that year I gave away about 60 little mimosas to my friends and neighbors. Of course all didn't live but enough did to get a good start."

Although she brought mimosas to Canyon, Miss Patterson is not planning to plant a mimosa tree in her yard at present because of the space required.

Since coming to Canyon, she has joined the First Methodist Church and the Murray Bible Class. She was also welcomed with a housewarming recently by a number of local friends and last week a group of home demonstration women from Pampa "brought their salads and came over for lunch and a visit".

Fair Ribbons For Residents

Canyon women won their share of the ribbons and awards at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo last week with several firsts being given to locals in the judging.

In the china painting division,

Membership Tea Is Held

Canyon chapter of the American Association of University Women opened the fall season with an annual membership tea Sunday in the formal lounge of the Fine Arts Building on the campus of West Texas State University.

Mrs. Cristler Crain, president, greeted about 60 members and guests. Hostesses for the tea were members of the social committee including Mrs. Bill R. Lee, chairman, Mrs. Willis Harrison, Mrs. Emerson Haraden and Mrs. John Green.

Women graduate of colleges and universities who are interested in membership in the AAUW are urged to contact either Mrs. Crain or Mrs. William Auvenshine, membership chairman, for information about AAUW and the study groups presently being organized.

Next meeting for the chapter will be October 5 in the home of Mrs. John Green.

Mrs. Tom Gooch won a first in the animal class with a Hereford bull painted on a 12 inch plate. Mrs. L. S. Johnston took a first place in the china painted tea sets.

Other awards in china painting included a first in bisque for Mrs. Tom Gooch on a pink powder box, a second for Mrs. Gooch on a vase with violets in the bisque division and a second place in tea sets.

Connie Brazzil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brazzil, won first place in junior textiles for her celery colored wool dress and plaid cape in the wool dress or suit division. Miss Brazzil also received a second place ribbon for a white wool dress.

In the senior textile division, Mrs. Inez Cataldi won first place on a Christmas tablecloth and in the same division Mrs. John McBride placed second.

Mrs. G. A. Dietz of Happy won first place in the embroidered rugs division and in junior culinary events Cathy Parker of Happy had a first place cake while Aaron Parker, Happy, had a first on snap beans. Miss Parker also placed second in the other meats division.

The home tour theme "Keys for Living" will be in keeping with the president's theme for the year "Youth: Key of Tomorrow". Other upcoming programs for the club will also involve a number of "keys" for living.

Canyon Study Club opened the season in August with a "back-to-school" fashion show and are currently planning toward a Halloween Carnival, a football chili supper, a tasting tea and a white elephant sale.

The club's yearbook is designed for "Adventures in Gardening" with various bouquet speakers slated for the coming club meetings and programs.

Sue Hite Club, directed by Mrs. Raymond Raillard, will take time to "get involved" in activities this year. The club's theme "Let's Get Involved" will be followed with various speakers and one high-light panel discussion where presidential candidates and their qualifications will be discussed.

The group is also planning a "hobby show" and will open the club season September 30 with a salad supper at the A.K. Goodman home.

MRS. MELVIN TUCEK, vice president of Chi Upsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority, checks the program book with a new pledge, Mrs. Joel Reese. Mrs. Tucek will be in charge of training new chapter pledges this year and will serve as advisor.
